 Jeffrey N. Greenblatt

When something important is at stake in your divorce – a significant right at issue – Jeffrey N. Greenblatt, a leader in Montgomery County family law, is the tenacious attorney you want by your side. Experience is integral to successfully navigating the minefield of complex, emotionally-charged family law matters, and Greenblatt has negotiated or tried well over 1,000 cases in a career spanning five decades.

With compassion, honesty and patience, he always lays out a clear case roadmap, ensuring clients, many misinformed and discouraged by their spouses, will understand their rights and the legal process.

“I love helping people who cannot help themselves, and I hate seeing someone being taken advantage of,” says Greenblatt, perennially recognized by Best Lawyers and Super Lawyers. “I will not let something go if I know it’s in my client’s best interests.”
